

Project management support for shallow draft navigation channels within Virginia's Middle Peninsula to include dredging and disposal strategies, support to joint permit applications and procurement oversight. Coordination with local, state, and federal agencies as well as numerous stakeholders to ensure that navigation needs are addressed to ensure that channel dimensions meet user requirements.

Shore Consulting Group (SCG) is pleased to work with the counties and the many stakeholder groups located within the Middle Peninsula to provide actionable solutions to address their navigation challenges.